

Iwakiri. . .

(Continued from Metro)

another of concealing minor children were dropped.

He was placed on three year's probation and assessed a jail sentence equivalent to the amount of time served since his Feb. 18 arrest.

Law enforcement officials have filed numerous charges against the suspects, hoping the pressure would lead to their divulging the whereabouts of the children.

Homicide Lt. Don Levan said Thursday, "Obviously we didn't achieve the results that we were attempting to — the immediate location of the children. But it certainly doesn't mean that we've given up."

In addition to Iwakiri and Casner, Iwakiri's wife, Juanita, 27, faces trial next month in Boise on charges of felony child concealment.

A preliminary hearing for the principal suspect in the case, Roy Summers, 39, the father of Brandi and Beverly Wise's ex-husband, is set for August 6. His sister, Karen Carino, 33, of Springfield, Va., has also been charged with accessory to kidnapping and murder, but authorities have not yet extradited her here.