hypnosis, the witness said it was three hours earlier. Klein said this would put it closer to noon, the time at which which pathologists believe Wise was killed.

The other witness said a man was at the house around 2 p.m. in a gold car with a vinyl roof and a chrome luggage rack on the trunk lid. The witness only saw the man walk toward the house and did not know how long he was there.

Klein said it is possible that there were two different men or it was the same man with two cars. The two pictures show men with differently styled sideburns, a point on which both witnesses were certain, Klein said. But if there were two men, the sergeant wondered why the man who was at the house after the crimes has not come forward.

Arrangements for the artist and hypnotist were arranged by the FBI.
