Boise Woman Faces Charge

BOISE (UPI) — A Boise woman has been charged with second-degree kidnapping in connection with the 1976 mysterious disappearance of two San Bernardino, Calif. girls.

Police arrested Juanita Iwakiri, 27, at her Boise home Friday evening and charged her in the disappearance of Tiffany Wise, 4, and her sister Brandi Johndell Summers, 8.

The girls' mother, Beverly Wise, 26, was found stabbed to death in her San Bernardino home March 30, 1977, the same day the girls disappeared.

Roy Summers, Brandi's father and Mrs. Wise's first husband, is on trial in Bend, Ore., on charges he attempted to kill his seventh wife, Ella Mae Kohler, Oct. 28 at their Redmond, Ore. home.

Boise police Spec. Hugh McNichols said Mrs. Iwakiri was arrested without incident and was being held in the Ada County jail in lieu of $100,000 bond.
